:: Kyal Horsley

Horsley didn't go sub-20 possessions once during the home-and-away season, averaging 26 touches - including a season-high haul of 35 in the Lions' Round 23 win over this week's preliminary final opponent East Fremantle.

From the AFL into SANDOVER MED

Sandover Selections

TRACEY LEWIS (Football Budget)

1st: Haiden Schloithe (SF)

2nd: Kyal Horsley (Sub)

3rd: Rory O'Brien (EF)

Hard luck story: Ashton Hams (SF). Playing his first full season back at the Bulldogs since retiring from the AFL after 39 games with West Coast, Hams claimed the Simpson Medal in this year's State game and averaged 26 disposals in 19 games. However accepting a reprimand after being charged with striking in Round 9 makes him ineligible.

CORBIN MIDDLEMAS (ABC)

1st: Haiden Schloithe (SF)

2nd: Kyal Horsley (Sub)

3rd: Rory O'Brien (EF)

Hard luck story: Luke Blackwell (CL). Recent history suggests players in a side that is well-beaten rarely poll a vote. Claremont lost five of their first seven games by more than 10 goals. That means Blackwell could well be giving up an insurmountable head start to his Medal rivals after the first block of fixtures.

DAVE LINDSAY (THE SUNDAY TIMES/ABC)

1st: Kyal Horsley (Sub)

2nd: Shane Nelson (WP)

3rd: Bradd Dalziel (EF)

Hard luck story: Brendan Lee (EP). Sustained a finger injury in the final pre-season match which kept him out of the first six matches. Lee collected more than 20 possessions in every game and played in 12 victories so is sure to collect plenty of votes and would have been a genuine contender had he played a full season.

CLINT WHEELDON (ABC)

1st: Kyal Horsley (Sub)

2nd: Luke Blackwell (CL)

3rd: Shane Nelson (WP)

Hard luck story: Brett Hodge (PTH). Perth's best and fairest last season spent Christmas 2013 skiing. He returned to training at the start of 2014, and after feeling some pain in his hand, decided to have it checked out. It turned out he'd broken a bone while on the slopes. Pardon the pun, but it all went downhill from there. Hodge had surgery to have pins inserted. That was successful, but a trip back to the surgeon showed his hand wasn't healing as quickly as hoped. Six weeks later, not much had changed... and six weeks later the diagnosis was the same... and so on, and so on until Hodge had seen all of season 2014 slide by. The Demons are hoping he'll be right to return for the start of 2015.

CHRIS PIKE (THE SUNDAY TIMES)

1st: Luke Blackwell (CL)

2nd: Craig Wulff (EP)

3rd: Ryan Davis (SD)

Hard luck story: Brendan Lee (EP). Has been a fairest and best winner in his last three years split between the WAFL and VFL, and very well could have added a Sandover Medal this year had he not missed the first six games with a finger injury. Been close to best on ground in just about every game since.

ROSS LEWIS (thewest.com.au/Football Budget)

1st: Brendan Lee (EP)

2nd: Luke Blackwell (CL)

3rd: Kyal Horsley (Sub)

Hard luck story: Callum Sinclair (EP). AFL commitments restricted Sinclair to 13 matches and limited his vote-getting opportunities. But he averaged 19 disposals, eight marks and 22 hit-outs per game to impress during the season. And East Perth big men have a strong history in the award.

AL HOT SEAT

By Tracey Lewis

KYAL Horsley left WA for the Gold Coast after being one of the favourites and then finishing as runner-up in the 2011 Sandover Medal count.

Three years and 14 games with the Suns later, the 27-year-old Subiaco captain is again one of the hot favourites to win the competition's highest individual honour.

Horsley returned to the Lions den after a knee reconstruction contributed to the premature end of his AFL career. But judging by his form this season it was hard to tell.

The clever forward started his season in Round 4 as the Lions won their fourth straight game to get 2014 underway. Out to atone for last year's 8th placing, the Lions, through the likes of Horsley, made an immediate impact and spent every week of the season in the top four.

Horsley didn't go sub-20 possessions once during the home-and-away season, averaging 26 touches – including a season-high haul of 35 in the Lions' Round 23 win over this week's preliminary final opponent East Fremantle.

Also among the favourites, as selected by some of the Football Budget tipsters, is former Fremantle rookie Haiden Schloithe who last week won the WJ Hughes Medal as South Fremantle's fairest and best winner for 2014.

Schloithe was a major driver in the Bulldogs winning their last five games of the season after struggling to string wins together in the first half of the year.

Schloithe, like Horsley, spent the past two seasons in the AFL system, and returned to the WAFL in a full-time capacity this season full of vigour and determination.

During 2014, the Football Budget will again feature a section on WAFL memorabilia and invites you to write or email if you want more information about the football collectables you have tucked away at home.

Monday night is Sandover Medal night and, with that in mind, I thought I might have a look at the various items of memorabilia relating to the WAFL's night-of-nights.

You might remember that last week I wrote about the programs/menus produced for the Sandover Medal count, the earliest I had seen dating to 1977.

But in 1982, league sponsors Marlboro went a step further by producing Sandover Medal scorecards. The large card opened out into a grid that could be used to record the votes for six players from each team. There was also space to add a couple of outsiders, just in case one of them looked like winning.

Perhaps the best of the Sandover Medal collectables, though, is the menu/program produced for a reunion of medallists, held at the Cottesloe Civic Centre in 1957.

A simple, fold-out menu, it rarely turns up for sale. However, when it does, it is often accompanied by a small cardboard Sandover Medal, which formed the table placing for each medallist.

Of course, there is also Alan East's wonderful 2006 book Sandover Medal Men, which tells the stories of each medallist to that point. And, at various times, those present at the count have also been given a keyring or a coaster to commemorate the night.

Finally, there have been several different bottles of plonk produced to celebrate various Sandover Medal wins. Perhaps the best of them is the series of port produced by Sandalford Wines in 1981, 1982 and 1983. I'm not sure whether they produced a 1984 port, but suspect they decided against it when the medal was shared by Steve Malaxos, Michael Mitchell and Peter Spencer.

Whatever the case, collectors always have an eye out for memorabilia on Sandover night.

There could be little argument about which is the greatest mark taken in WAFL history.

While some might talk about the someone like Peter Bosustow or refer specifically to Michael Mitchell's 1985 mark against Subiaco, it's just about impossible to overlook John Gerovich's grab over Ray French in the 1956 preliminary final.

After all, it's an iconic mark that sculptor Robert Hitchcock has now turned into a bronze statue that stands outside Fremantle Oval.

But I have recently been shown another bronze statue of Gero's grab. Standing just 55cm tall, it's much smaller than the Fremantle Oval version.

Unfortunately, this one has no maker's mark on it and I have no idea who made it. Strangely, the owner found it recently in an antique shop in La Trobe, Tasmania.

So, can any Budget reader shed any light on this mystery? How may were made? Who was the artist? And when was it made?

The sales turned up quite a mix of items in the past week, including quite a few grand final Budgets that sold for surprisingly good prices.

The value of grand final Budgets from the 1980s and 1990s has steadily fallen in recent years and it's usually no problem to pick them up for $10-20 each.

But the thrill of the competition must have gotten too much for a few buyers, some of whom spent much more than that.

A Budget from the 1984 grand final sold for $39, one from the 1989 grand final for $25, the 1990 grand final sold for $50.50 and two copies of the 1992 grand final sold – the first for $25 and the second for $17. A program from the 1972 national carnival, which was held in Perth, also fetched the surprisingly high price of $33.

A pair of 1982 glass tumblers, featuring Subiaco and Claremont, sold for $25 apiece, a 1985 WAFL centenary glass sold for $5, while a lot of all eight sets of WAFL club playing cards sold for $150.

There was also a 1960s plastic badge with the Perth logo on it, which sold for $40, and a 1984 Subiaco annual report for $10.

Finally, there were a few club membership badges on offer, too, though nothing like the same number or quality as those sold off last week.

A 1961 Subiaco badge sold for $30, a 1982 Subiaco badge for $12, a 2007 Claremont badge for $6, a 1953 South Fremantle badge for $62 and a 1953 East Perth badge for $75.

If you have a query regarding WAFL memorabilia, send photographs and/or details to Sean at blackswan@iinet.net.au or Sean Cowan, c/o Football Budget, PO Box 911, Subiaco, WA 6904. His website is at www.waflcollectables.webs.com and he also can be contacted on 0412 760 004.

Players form a guard of honour for Greg Smith following his 450th game.

Smith reaches 450-game milestone

Boundary umpire Greg Smith became the first West Australian to umpire 450 senior games when he officiated the Round 23 WAFL game between Subiaco and East Fremantle at Medibank Stadium.

Smith started umpiring in 1994 and has since umpired 159 AFL games and 291 WAFL games, including two WAFL grand finals.

His AFL career ended after the 2005 season, but he returned to the WAFL and has been a staple on the boundary ever since.

Smith said he found it hard to comprehend that he had umpired his 450th match.

"It's a strange feeling," he said.

"There's a lot of guys who have done milestones this year and when I hear someone is doing their 250th, I think 'wow, that's a lot of games' and then it hits me that I've reached 450.

"It was a year by year process when I came back. I wanted to come back because I enjoyed it and since then every year has gone by.

"I want to improve every year and the younger guys challenge me and push me. Seeing the young guys develop is really exciting. But my goals are always to improve every year."

Smith was named in the WA National Football League Umpires Association's Team of the Decade at the 60th anniversary function, the umpiring change rooms are named in his honour and he is a life member of the Association.

AFL grand final boundary umpire Nathan Doig said Smith was an umpiring icon.

"Whenever I have a question about boundary umpiring and what I should be doing on the field, Smithy's the person I go to," he said.

WAFL Umpire Manager Darryl Sinclair congratulated Smith on reaching the milestone and described it as one of the greatest achievements he'd seen in WA football.

"His dedication and professionalism on and off the field has been fantastic. He has been one of the most consistent throwers going around and his decision-making is first class," he said.

Freo Footy Skills grand final

Gloomy skies and rain couldn't dampen the spirits of almost 200 competitors who had won their way through to compete in the State-wide grand finals of the Freo Long Bomb, Freo Kwik Kick and Freo Fast Ball competitions.

The three competitions were the curtain-raiser to the Fremantle versus Port Adelaide game at Patersons Stadium on August 30.

Freo Kwik Kick involves students kicking in pairs over a short distance to see how many successful kicks they can complete in three minutes.

Freo Fast Ball is an exciting team handballing event. The competition involves a team of six students handballing a football through the zig-zag formation as quickly as possible.

Freo Long Bomb simply involves students trying to kick a football as far as they can.

The three competitions were split into individual age groups from Year 4 through to Year 7. Students came from as far away as Waggrakine in the State's north to Manjimup in the south and all over metropolitan Perth.

Whilst not everyone was fortunate enough to be a winner on the day, the opportunity to participate on Patersons Stadium will create lasting memories.

The support received from parents and supporters was fantastic and Fremantle Football Club and the West Australian Football Commission thanked the volunteers, including Fremantle Dockers SEDA students, on making the day a success.

"Thanks must also go to the hundreds of teachers for involving thousands of Western Australian primary school students in the competitions from all over the State," said WAFC Schools Competitions Manager Clayton Anderson.

Hardisty rewarded by Past Players and Officials Association

The WAFL Combined Past Players and Officials Association presented their trophy for the fairest and best WA player at the National 18's Championships at the Jack Clarke Medal count last week.

Claremont young gun Jared Hardisty was the honoured recipient of the trophy awarded by Combined Association President Rod Hazell.

Thunderbirds claim Rogers Cup

The Peel Thunderbirds capped off an outstanding 2014 Youth Girls campaign with their inaugural Rogers Cup win.

Played on HBF Arena on Sunday, August 31 with over 1500 people in attendance, the Thunderbirds overcame some inaccurate kicking to run out eventual winners by 19 points, 5.11 (41) to 3.4 (22).

As the curtain-raiser to the Swan Districts versus Coastal Titans double-header in the Reserves and League, Peel and runners-up Claremont showcased the unlimited potential of the Youth Girls competition, as the game was played in great spirits.

The second season of the Youth Girls competition has gathered great momentum from all nine Districts, with the participation and enjoyment seen throughout the competition.

The Youth Girls grand final culminated in the naming of the fairest and best winners for the 2014 season, with AFL Manager Female Football Development, Jan Cooper as the MC.

Two talented young female footballers couldn't be split; South Fremantle's Beatrice Devlyn and Peel's Courtney Hodder were both crowned the fairest and best for the Youth Girls 2014 competition.

Hodder capped off a remarkable first season in the Youth Girls as she was also named best on ground for her efforts in the grand final victory. A very talented young footballer who has come from playing junior football with the boys, last year Hodder represented Western Australia in the inaugural Female KickStart Championships and was duly named the best player of the championships along with being selected in the Woomeras 'All Australian Team'.

:: The Thunderbirds players celebrate victory at the final siren.

With Melbourne FC women's team head coach Michelle Cowan on hand, along with 2014 AFL Women's Draft number one pick Tiah Haynes, the Youth Girls grand final was a fantastic spectacle for the future generations of female football in WA.

Reserves Preliminary final

WEST PERTH V CLAREMONT

For its sake, a week better be a long time in football for West Perth.

The Falcons and preliminary final opponent Claremont approach the clash from vastly contrasting angles.

The Tigers roar into the match on the back of a crushing defeat of East Fremantle in the first semi-final. Adrenalin is running high at the Showground.

But West Perth is trying to regroup after a near-10-goal loss to a supremely confident Subiaco line-up in the major semi-final. Much work is to be done in seven days.

While Trent Mazone and Kris Shannon worked hard for the Falcons, coach Paul Sanzone is going to have to call on Drew Rohde, Shane Zanetti and Matt Fowler to lift their team as it strives for one more crack at Subiaco in the flag decider.

Claremont benefited from the return of several league players for their semi-final but the pleasing aspect of the win over the Sharks was the contribution to the cause from Ethan Panizza, Steven Edwards and Keifer Yu, who have spent the majority of their season with the reserves program.

The Falcons will also need a plan in the ruck as Darcy Cameron and Josh Tilley combined for 49 hit-outs last week to give their team the all-important first use of the ball.

Colts Preliminary final

CLAREMONT V SOUTH FREMANTLE

From being one step from a grand final to fighting for survival.

Claremont could almost taste premiership week during the second semi-final clash with Swan Districts.

With Matthew Palfrey, Harry Taylor and Bailey Rogers impressive, the Tigers were positioned to upset the ladder-leading black and whites with a two-goal lead going into the final quarter.

But Claremont ran out of steam to lose by five points and create a sudden-death showdown against South Fremantle.

The Tigers will need to keep their engine room firing against the Bulldogs and will call on special efforts from midfielders Ryan Lim, Jared Hardisty and Alec Waterman.

South Fremantle got great spark from Jarrod Pickett in its first semi-final win over East Perth. Claremont will have to be wary of Pickett's ability to fire the Bulldogs on-ball brigade.

Noah Strom has also been strong in defence for South, earning praise from outgoing coach Arthur Maskos after the victory over the Royals.

The Bulldogs also possess the best goal-kicker in the colts competition, Cameron Loersch, who has slotted 56 goals this season.

In their previous battle, the Tigers claimed a 36-point win at the Showground.

Preliminary final

SUBIACO V EAST FREMANTLE

The first 15 minutes of the do-or-die wrestle at Medibank Stadium will be critical to Subiaco's premiership hopes.

The Lions were slow off the opening siren in the second semi-final battle against East Perth and paid the price. A 4.2 to 0.5 first term set up the Royals' victory.

So expect the smelling salts, theme from Rocky and fire and brimstone from coach Jarrad Schofield to have Subiaco inspired for the initial bounce.

Schofield will also call on the midfield leadership that has been the key to so much of the Lions' success in 2014.

Kyal Horsley has returned from an AFL stint to be a strong midfield general while Jason Bristow can regularly be found underneath a pack, Chris Phelan can be relied upon to annoy his opponent and Chris Deluca is able to provide plenty of drive.

And if the midfield runs smoothly Subiaco can be confident in attack with Matt Boland a reliable target near goals.

It was significant that when the teams met in round 23, three goals from Boland were crucial to the Lions' triumph.

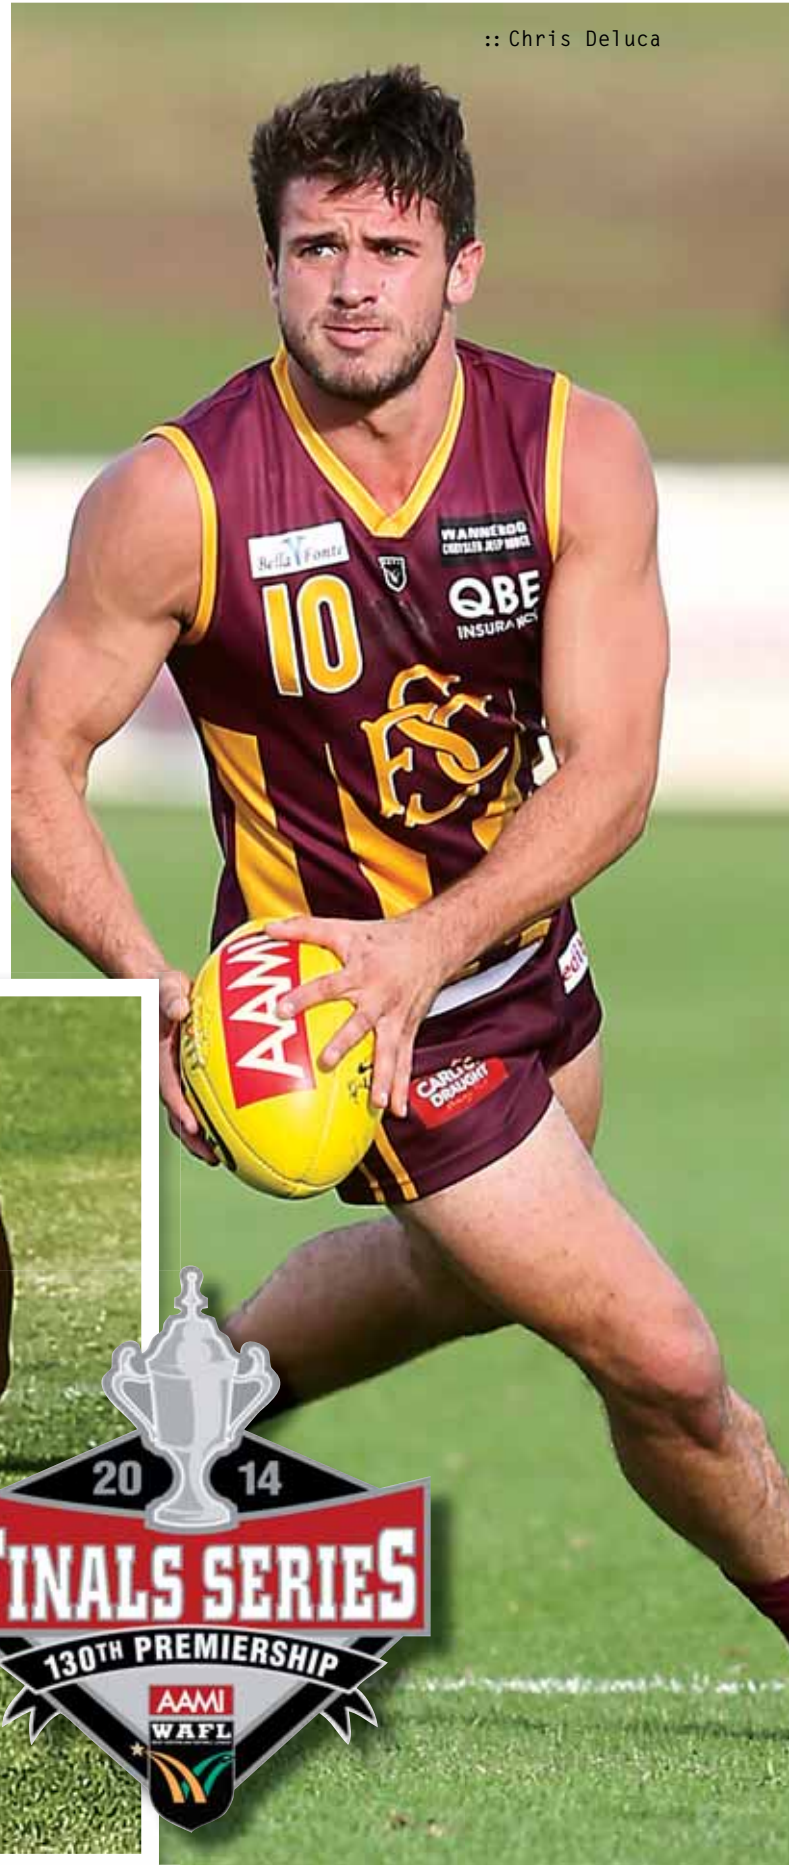

But East Fremantle showed they can quickly put the squeeze on the opposition after choking Swan Districts in the final quarter of the first semi-final.

Bradd Dalziel, Mark McGough and Rory O'Brien can spark the Sharks into action and bring forwards Brett Peake and Ryan Lester-Smith into the contest.

Jack Perham was quiet early in last week's match but burst to life late to be a strong mark in the attacking zone.

The match also has special significance for McGough and versatile veteran Rob Young. McGough reaches the 100-game milestone with the Sharks while Young notches appearance No.150.

THE BOXTROLLS (UNIVRESAL FILMS)

The Boxtrolls is a comedic fable that unfolds in Cheesebridge, a posh Victorian-era town obsessed with wealth, class and the stinkiest of fine cheeses.

Beneath its charming cobblestone streets dwell the Boxtrolls, foul monsters who crawl out of the sewers at night and steal what the townspeople hold most dear: their children and their cheeses.

At least that's the legend residents have always believed. In truth, the Boxtrolls are an underground cavern-dwelling community of quirky and lovable oddballs who wear recycled cardboard boxes the way turtles wear their shells.

The Boxtrolls have raised an orphaned human boy, Eggs (voiced by Isaac Hempstead-Wright), since infancy as one of their dumpster-diving and mechanical junk-collecting own. When the Boxtrolls are targeted by a villainous pest exterminator Archibald Snatcher (Acadamy Award winner Ben Kingsley) who is bent on eradicating them as his ticket to Cheesebridge society, the kind-hearted band of tinkers must turn to their adopted charge and an adventurous rich girl Winnie (Elle Fanning) to bridge two worlds amidst the winds of change – and cheese.

The Boxtrolls opens on September 18.

THE GIVER (ROADSHOW)

The haunting story of The Giver centres on Jonas (Brenton Thwaites), a young man who lives in a seemingly ideal, if colourless, world of conformity and contentment.

Yet as he begins to spend time with The Giver (Jeff Bridges), who is the sole keeper of all the community's memories, Jonas quickly begins to discover the dark and deadly truths of his community's secret past.

With this newfound power of knowledge, he realises that the stakes are higher than imagined – a matter of life and death for himself and those he loves most.

At extreme odds, Jonas knows that he must escape their world to protect them all – a challenge that no one has ever succeeded at before.

The Giver is based on Lois Lowry's beloved young adult novel of the same name, which was the winner of the 1994 Newbery Medal and has sold over 10 million copies worldwide.

The Giver also stars Alexander Skarsgard, Meryl Streep, Katie Holmes, Odeya Rush and Taylor Swift and opens on September 11.

Chen the A Grade's best

Fremantle C.B.C. Amateur Football Club's Brendan Chen has won the WA Amateur Football League's A Grade Fairest and Best and was awarded the C.J Jamieson Medal at the Medal Presentation Dinner on Monday night at Crown Perth.

Held in front of more than 870 guests, the Medal Presentation Dinner celebrates the WA Amateur Football League's Fairest and Best players across its 25 grades.

President of the WA Amateur Football League John Davies opened proceedings by recognising the innovations that have been embraced by the clubs.

"This season we asked coaches and umpires after every game about the spirit in which their game was played," Mr Davies said.

"Of the 1800 responses, 94 per cent of coaches and umpires agreed our game is being played within Spirit of the Game.

"That statistic is testament to all players and coaches who play for the love and enjoyment of football."

All grades from B to E4 were presented with their medals on the night, culminating in the C.J Jamieson Medal being awarded to Chen.

Chen polled a total of 27 votes throughout the season, six ahead of Christopher Basile of Fremantle C.B.C. and eleven ahead of Jamie Birrell of Trinity Aquinas.

This achievement is the cherry-on-top for Fremantle C.B.C who have had an outstanding season in the A Grade, inclusive of winning the A Grade minor premiership.

Wembley's Benjamin Noakes was awarded the B Grade WA Amateur Football League

Fairest and Best, a bitter-sweet win for the Wembley boys who were eliminated from the Skill Hire WAAFL finals series after finishing second on the B Grade ladder.

Other award winners on the night included Adam Edwards of Stirling – winner of the C1 Fairest and Best, and Cameron Tilley who capped off a fantastic season at Coolbinia West Perth winning the C2 award. C3 Fairest and Best went to Brentwood Booragoon's Rowan Arnott, with the C4 award won by Dylan Grogan of Osborne Park.

The A Grade leading goal kicker award was won by West Coast's Brad Bennet who bagged 52 goals for the season. The B Grade leading goal kicker was awarded to Stephen Martin from Hamersley Carine who kicked 71 goals, earning himself a back-to-back title after also winning the award in 2013.

Also presented on the night were the senior and colts Champion Club awards – given to the fairest and most successful clubs throughout the season.

The Champion Senior Club award was won by Kingsway, while Carlisle and Kingsway tied for the Champion Colts Club.

University's Chaz Flint won the LA Tetley award as the best player in the 2014 West Coast Eagles State Amateur under 23's program, while Manning Rippers Sarina Aston capped off a wonderful year for the club by winning the Administrator of the Year award and Quinns Districts Ian Lee was awarded the Ken Armstrong Senior Community Coach of the Year.

Grand finals for all B-E Grades take place this weekend, with full fixtures available on the WAAFL website. Entry is $10 per person, with $5 concession. Bouncedown for all league games is 2.30pm, following reserves at 12.15pm and colts at 10am.

A triple to North Albany

In the Great Southern, North Albany claimed the premiership with an impressive 100-point thumping of Royals.

Daniel Parker showed great form with six goals, while Alec Haskins who was also good for the winners. Declan McNamara was best for the Royals.

Apart winning the league flag, North Albany also took out the reserves and colts premierships in a great day for the club.

It was a much tighter affair in the Upper Great Southern with Williams holding on to record a one-point win over a fast-finishing Narrogin Hawks. Locals described the game as one of the most exciting in recent years. Jeb Swallow was awarded the George Warren medal for his best on ground effort for Williams.

In the Eastern Districts Hyden-Karlgarin, led by a best on ground effort from Alex James, upset the more fancied Kulin-Kondinin by 31 points to claim the flag.

Further North, Mingenew completed a perfect season with 90-point win over Dongara to claim the North Midlands flag, with Curtley Mow the best on ground medal winner.

This weekend's fixtures will feature teams from Avon, Central Midlands Coastal, Goldfields, Great Northern, Hills, Mortlock, Ongerup and West Kimberley all engaged in grand final action.

Can You Help?

WAFL historian Greg Wardell-Johnson wishes to thank all respondents to the Can You Help? segment in the 2014 WAFL Football Budget.

Particular thanks to Colin Wilson whose extraordinary research efforts each week secured at least 20 new pieces of information for the WAFL database.

Responses will benefit the accuracy of a full WAFL league player list, which aims to be available on the WAFL website in the future.

For all WAFL history enquiries search www.waflonline.com.au or direct email to gwardelljohnson@wafc.com.au
